HIPPA OVERVIEW

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

- Treatment: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party.
- Payment: Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services.
- Healthcare Operations: We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physician's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your physician. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when your physician is ready to see you. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you or your appointment.
- We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as Required By Law, Public Health issues as required by law, Communicable Diseases: Health Oversight: Abuse or Neglect: Food and Drug Administration requirements: Legal Proceedings: Law Enforcement: Coroners, Funeral Directors, and Organ Donation: Research: Criminal Activity: Military Activity and National Security: Workers' Compensation: Inmates: Required Uses and Disclosures: Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.
- Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures will be made only with your consent, Authorization or Opportunity to object unless required by law.
- You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the physician's practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.
- Your Rights: You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy your protected health information. Under federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records; psychotherapy notes; information compiled in reasonable anticipation of , or use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding, and protected health information that is subject to law that prohibits access to protected health information.
- You have the right to request a restriction of your protected health information. This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request health information not be disclosed to family members or friends. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply. Your physician is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. If physician believes it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of your protected health information, your protected health information will not be restricted. You then have the right to use another Healthcare Professional.
- You have the right to request to receive confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an alternative location. You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, upon request, even if you have agreed to accept this notice alternatively i.e. electronically.
- You may have the right to have your physician amend your protected health information. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your protected health information.

- We reserve the right to change terms of this notice and will inform you by mail of any changes. You then have the right to object or withdraw as provided in this notice.
- Complaints: You may complain to us or to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us. You may file a complaint by notifying our privacy contact of your complaint. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
- We are required by law to maintain the privacy of, and provide individuals with, this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. If you have any objections to this form, please ask to speak with our HIPAA Compliance Officer in person or by phone at our Main Phone Number.
- Federal Law mandates that patients have the right to expect their health information to be protected from disclosure. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) protects those records from access via fax, mail or verbal exchange without written consent.
- In 1996, Congress passed the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). The intent of HIPAA was three fold:

  Provide Insurance Portability for Patients
  Promote Simplification or Consistent Standards
  Prevent Fraud and Abuse of the Healthcare System
- All health care providers, including physicians, hospitals, health plans and healthcare providers that conduct certain financial and administrative transactions such as enrollment, billing and eligibility verification electronically must comply with of the provisions of HIPAA.
- The HIPAA Privacy Regulation was first published December 28, 2000 and the rule became effective April 14, 2001. Violation of the regulation can possibly result in civil fines of up to $25,000.00 per violation with up to a one-year prison sentence. Criminal fines are up to $250,000.00 or up to ten years in prison or both. The final compliance deadline for most entities, (physician practices included) was April 14, 2003. The regulation will be enforced by the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Health and Human Services.

No Show/Cancellations Policies

To Our Patients:

Our goal is to provide quality individualized medical care in a timely manner. “No shows” and late cancellations inconvenience those individuals who need access to medical care. We understand that sometimes you may have to cancel or reschedule your appointment. Office policy requires that you give us at least 24 notices for office visits and 72 hours’ notice for scheduled procedures/surgeries. Failure to cancel or reschedule your appointment 24 hours in advance for office visits will result in a $25 fee.

To Cancel or reschedule an appointment, please call our office at 713-467-0102.
Thank you for your adherence to our policies.

I have reviewed and understand the No Show/Cancellation Policy.

FMLA, Disability and Medical Record Fees

As a courtesy 1 form for FMLA/ disability will be completed. Any additional forms will be a $30.00 fee for preparation and completion. Including forms for caregivers/ spouses.

Medical Records will be a $30.00 for copying and distribution of patient medical records.
