

This documents the patients understanding and knowledge of the guidelines for silicone gel as published and recommended by the Federal Drug Administration and the manufacturer of the breast implants. The guidelines state that any person considering silicone gel breast implants for cosmetic reasons should be of a minimum age of 22 before receiving them.

You knowingly request we vary from this recommendation for reasons of improved patient satisfaction, decreased rippling, improved feel of the implant, and no risk of deflation as with saline implants.

Patient Name:

X

---

Patient Signature

X

---

Witness Signature

Date: